Dear Ms Thomas,

I Deborah Richardson from Argon ST am writing this letter of recommendation for Neeta Singh, president of Tiger Controls Inc for the Virginia Minority Supplier Development Council Entrepreneur of the Year award. It has been my pleasure to make her acquaintance throughout my company and to do business with her company for the past six months.

Neeta has made my company as one of her customer's top priority by providing quality products at very competitive pricing. Not only does her pricing, quality, and on time delivery meet our needs, but her ability and efforts to help us find exactly what we need no matter how difficult it may be to locate customer service is first rate.

Neeta is also an effective leader. She communicates expectations and recommends cost effective solutions to better improve her team's performance. She has a winning attitude that embraces challenges and encourages collaboration. Neeta's staff has the same favorable characteristics as her.

Thank you for considering Ms. Singh for the Virginia Minority Supplier Development Council Entrepreneur of the Year award. I hope that my recommendation will serve as an example of why she should be selected. If you have any questions, feel free to give me a call at 703-995-5675.

Sincerely,

Deborah Richardson
